COKE PRODUCERS WIN BIG VICTORY OVER RAILROADS

Interstate Commerce Commission Orders 5 Per Cent Reduction in Rates.

CHICAGO TARIFF ALONE UPHELD

Independent Operators Carry Every Other Point in Their Fight to Reverse Excessive Burden Placed on Them by the Transportation Lines.

Word from Washington today is to effect that the Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered a sweeping 5 per cent reduction in freight rates on coke to all western points with the exception of Chicago. A decision was made today in the suit of the Independent Coke Producers' Association against the Baltimore & Ohio, the Pennsylvania and the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroads.

The fight continued over many months and the contentions of the coke operators were strongly opposed at every point by the best attorneys the railroads could rally to their support.

Wade H. Ellis was chief counsel for the coke operators. He was given invaluable assistance by John W. Holcomb, the coal and coke expert of Pittsburgh, who supplied figures that showed the coke traffic to bear an unjust burden in the matter of rates. Discrimination against the coke operators was alleged by the coke operators, and the Interstate Commerce Commission, in its decision today, has upheld their claim.

The operators asked a 5 per cent reduction in the rates and it was granted, with the single exception of the Chicago rate. The new and the old rates prevailing are as follows on coke shipped from points in the Connellsville region to western centers of consumption:

	New Rate	Old Rate
Youngstown, O.	$1.55	$1.60
Cleveland	1.55	1.60
Columbus	1.55	1.60
Canton	1.55	1.60
Toledo	1.55	1.60
Detroit, Mich.	2.10	2.20
Milwaukee, Wis.	2.70	2.80
East St. Louis, Ill.	2.90	3.00
Pittsburgh, N. Y.	1.55	1.60
Erie	1.55	1.60

The commission at the same time handed down its decision in the complaint of the Interstate Commerce Commission against the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, holding that the rate of $1.35 a ton on coke from the Connellsville region to points in the Mahoning valley is exorbitant, and ordering a reduction of $1.25.

Reparation of $1,000,000 asked in the complaint was denied by the commission. The commission also held it had no jurisdiction to change the coke rates to the Shenandoah valley furnaces, as such traffic is interstate and not interstate.

DEATH LIST TOTALS SIX

New Haven Work Done to Engineers Failure to Obey Orders.

STAMFORD, Conn., June 13.—The death list as the result of the rear end collision between two sections of the Eastern Connecticut railroad, New Haven & Hartford railroad, was increased to six this morning, when George James, aged 31, a reporter for the New York World, died in a hospital here.

James was seriously injured, but when he was taken from the wreck he refused to go to the hospital before his rescuers promised to notify his father of his condition. Then he became unconscious and remained in that state until he died.

An inquest into the deaths will be held today. Engineer Charles Daugherty, in charge of the second section, who disobeyed orders and then found that his brakes would not work in time to prevent the collision, is missing, as is also his fireman.

REACH NO VERDICT

Somerset County Will Be Asked to Act in Death at Somerville.

Coroner H. J. Bell of Dawson conducted an inquest into the death of Harry McIntock of Harnedville last evening at Somerset. The jury was composed of W. R. Scott, Frank Bradford, J. L. Evans, William McCortick, A. H. Wood and B. Rottler. McIntock died at the Cottage State Hospital from injuries suffered when a steam pipe of the United Lumber Company at Humbert burst.

Testimony was given by one witness. No verdict was given by the jury and Coroner H. J. Bell will turn the matter over to the Somerset authorities.

Steel Company Wins.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—In the case of the Pittsburgh Steel Company against the Lake Shore and other railroads, the Interstate Commerce Commission decreed that the railroads cannot charge a higher rate for the transportation of iron ore lake points to Pittsburgh than is charged to carry it to Wheeling.

Glass Rates Unfair.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Plate and window glass rates between Toledo and Pittsburgh to High Point, W. Va., were declared unfair today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

CLARK THIRD CLASS CITY BILL GIVES COMMISSION WIDE POWER

Mayor and Four Councilmen Have Complete Management and Control of Municipal Affairs.

The Clark commission government bill for third class cities is now up to Governor Toner. That there is a possibility that he will not approve the measure is indicated in the appeal before sent to chambers of commerce and other commercial organizations by the Municipal Government by Commission Association, urging that the Governor be urged to sign the measure. The bill has not yet reached the Governor and is not to be acted upon for a week or more.

The Clark act vests the legislative power of every city of the third class in a council composed of the mayor and four councilmen, to have and possess all powers heretofore conferred by law on the select and common councils of such cities. The corporate powers of the cities themselves remain the same as under the old laws. The mayor shall be president of council.

Except where otherwise provided in the act, the terms of councilmen and all other city and ward officers shall begin the first Monday of January. Councilmen and mayors elected in November of this year shall take office the first Monday of December. Mayors, treasurers, controllers, solicitors, engineers, assessors and clerks of cities now in office shall serve out the terms for which they were elected, but in the terms of select and common councilmen and other officers not enumerated above shall cease on the first Monday of December of this year.

Mayors and councilmen shall be at least 25 years of age and shall have been residents of the city for a year before election. They are to be elected at large. The term of the mayor is four years and of the four councilmen two years. The mayor is not to have the right to veto acts of a majority of the council, but he is to have an equal vote with the four other members. Three members shall constitute a quorum. Council is to hold regular meetings once a month and special meetings on call of two members. All meetings are to be public. The mayor and clerk are to sign all ordinances, and they become effective 10 days thereafter. A summary statement of receipts and expenditures and the condition of the city debt is to be printed annually.

Councilmen are to be paid salaries of not less than $250 nor more than $3,000 a year. The act fixes the salaries of the councilmen to be elected this year as follows: Cities of 15,000 population, or under, $100 each; between 15,000 and 30,000 $750; between 30,000 and 50,000 $500; between 50,000 and 70,000 $2,500; over 70,000, $3,000. These salaries are fixed only for the first set of councilmen. Each councilman is authorized to fix the salaries of his successors, within the minimum and maximum above mentioned. It is also to fix the pay of other city officers and employees.

The mayor is to be superintendent of the department of public affairs, and the four other councilmen are to be superintendents of the department of accounts and finance, the department of public safety, the department of streets and public improvements and the department of parks and public property. The mayor is to be the chief executive magistrate of the city, charged with the execution of the ordinances and armed with the peace powers of a sheriff and the criminal jurisdiction of an attorney general. He is to make all appointments of subordinate employees of the city. The police force is to be directly under the control of the mayor, subject to the rules and regulations of council. The mayor is to be the superintendent of the department of accounts and finance and is to be vice president of council and acting mayor of the city during the mayor's absence. The mayor may designate an adjutant to preside over the police court.

Council shall fix the salary of the mayor.

THIRD IMPEACHMENT FOR PRESENT LEGISLATURE

Investigation of the Umbel and Van Swearingen Charges Begins on Thursday.

HARRISBURG, June 13.—The investigation of charges against Judge Robert E. Umbel and J. Q. Van Swearingen of Fayette County, to be started today in the House of Representatives, is the third case of impeachment to be tackled by the House of Representatives at the present session. Judge Fuller of Luzerne county, was the first to be attacked by the Legislature. He was exonerated and soon after charges were filed against Judge Brumm of Schuylkill. After a bitter fight over majority and minority representatives the House this week declared the Brumm charges unfounded. In both instances several weeks were devoted to investigations.

The charges against Judges Umbel and Van Swearingen were filed so late that it is deemed impossible for the present House to make a thorough investigation. The committee will sit three days next week and then report whether or not the investigation should be continued or dropped.

If it is to be continued the committee will have to be given authority to issue subpoenas before the session closes. If under the law this procedure cannot be followed the committee probably will report that a recommendation be made to the Legislature of 1915 that the charges be dropped.

U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEYSHIP TAKEN OUT OF POLITICS

Attorney General McReynolds Will Name the Successor to John H. Jordan.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—In appointing United States district attorneys, President Wilson will not consult political leaders, but not up to the endorsement of Attorney General McReynolds, is the information from the department of justice, given to Pennsylvania Democratic politicians endeavoring to name the successor to J. H. Jordan at Pittsburgh. Several Democratic lawyers are candidates, including former Representative Curtis D. Gregg, E. Lowry Humes and I. L. Wilson.

Attorney General McReynolds has informed the Democratic leaders in Pennsylvania they need not expect an appointment upon political considerations, but that the administration desired a lawyer of experience and ability and he would send to the President the name of the man who would succeed District Attorney Jordan.

The appointment of a collector of internal revenue at Pittsburgh may be delayed indefinitely. The officials have been advised of the charges before the Pennsylvania Legislature against Judge R. E. Umbel and Bruce E. Sterling, chairman of the Democratic County Committee.

Sterling is the principal supporter of C. G. Leavelly of Brownsville for collector. He was in Washington yesterday and insists that Leavelly will be appointed. Friends of John P. Bracken of Carnegie have enlisted strong support in his behalf and his appointment will not surprise the Pennsylvanians here.

WILL OCCUPY NEW MAIN ST. BUILDING ON OCTOBER FIRST

Woolworth Building Superintendent Looks Over the Work.

DUCCAN IS TWO WEEKS BEHIND

Foundation Was to Have Been Completed on July 1 but Will Be Finished on the Fifteenth; Material for Building Is on Way to Connellsville.

Although Contractor John Duggan is hurrying the work of removing the old Presbyterian Church and erecting the foundations for the new Woolworth building on Main street he is two weeks behind in his contract and it is probable that the work will not be completed before the middle of July. The contractor expects to have a portion of the foundation completed before July 1, but will be unable to have the work completed in accordance with the provisions of his contract.

When Duggan began the work it was with the understanding that it was to be completed in 60 days. Inclement weather and other causes have resulted in much time being lost. Discussing the situation this morning, C. M. Wilson of Wilkes-Barre, building superintendent of the Woolworth company, stated that the work of construction will be completed as soon as possible and that a contract for it will be awarded by business by October 1.

Iron, steel and other material used in the construction of the building has been ordered, and much of it has been shipped by the manufacturers. The first cars are expected to arrive here in a few days. The construction of the main building will be done under the direct supervision of Mr. Wilson. Local men will be employed for the work, but it is not expected that a contract for it will be awarded to a local firm.

The building will be one of the most modern of the large string of stores owned by the company in Pennsylvania. The floor space will be ample for the many departments that make up the business. F. W. Woolworth & Co. has several buildings now under course of construction in the state. One at Oliphant is virtually completed and it is expected that the opening will be held in a few weeks. Others are at York, Erie, Williamsport and Beaver Falls.

Mr. Wilson left this afternoon for Pittsburgh. He expects to return in a few days.

NO PEONAGE SHOWN

Senators Fail to Find Evidence of it in West Virginia.

United Press Telegram. CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 13.—Governor Hatfield by his proclamation doing away with the military court, admitted that the wrong course was being pursued in connection with the strike situation, according to the belief of the members of the Senate investigating committee.

The committee has completed its first session and will report to the Senate that the charges that minors' mail was tampered with have been confirmed. No evidence, however, has been produced to show the existence of peonage conditions said to exist and it is expected that this line of investigation will be discarded.

137 JOIN AUTOMOBILE CLUB TO FIGHT FOR BETTER ROADS

Campaign Will be Launched Immediately to Improve the Highways of Yough Region; Committees Named.

The Connellsville Automobile Club is now on a sound working basis. At a meeting last night the organization was completed. Committees were appointed, by-laws adopted and plans for road improvement discussed. The meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Forty men, owners of cars or interested in the good roads movement, were present. President George Munson occupied the chair.

A feature of the session was the report of the membership committee, which showed that 137 are now members of the club. F. H. Rosboro, a member of the Automobile Club of Fayette County, asserted that this was a splendid showing in view of the fact that the club has been organized only a few weeks.

The by-laws were modeled after those recommended by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation. The annual dues are placed at $5. Another feature provides that applicants for membership receiving two negative votes in committee shall be denied membership.

Mr. Rosboro spoke briefly, outlining the course of work pursued by the county organization. Members belonging to the latter organization, he said, may be transferred to the Connellsville club. There are between 300 and 400 automobile owners in the county, he pointed out, and they would furnish sufficient members for the county road club without these residing in Connellsville.

The legislative committee was instructed to secure the names of the road supervisors of Bulksin and Upper Tyrone townships. An effort will be made to have the supervisors repair the road running from Pennsville to Iron Bridge. It was stated that it is in a bad condition. W. L. Wright suggested that the club approach the county council with a view to having a street at the end of the paving on Main street, West Side, placed in better shape.

In connection with the bill to be held by the Fayette County club, Mr. Rosboro stated that it was open only to owners of cars who are members of the county organization. However, the club intends to conduct a professional hill climb later in the season and members of the Connellsville club will be permitted to compete.

C. B. Francis of the roads committee reported that he had interviewed Senator W. B. Crow relative to roads between Connellsville borough line and the Stone bridge, and from Connellsville to Logan's Crossing, in Dunbar township, and that the Senator was emphatic in the statement that the state will soon improve them. Senator Crow informed Mr. Francis that the money for the work has been appropriated by the legislature, but that the work had been delayed on account of the illness of State Highway Commissioner E. M. Blylow.

Committees appointed by the board of governors follow: Roads, C. B. Francis; Finance, C. B. Francis; Public Safety, C. B. Francis; Parks and Public Property, C. B. Francis; Accounts and Finance, C. COKE COMPANY BRINGS SUIT TO RECOVER ON A CONTRACT

Etna Connellsville Company Asks $117,743.12 Alleged to be Due From Uniontown.

Special to The Courier. UNIONTOWN, June 13.—The Etna Connellsville Coke Company has filed suit against the Whyl Coke Company asking $117,743.12 with interest from May 25, 1913. The amount is alleged to be due on a contract.

According to the statement filed here, Cyrus Schindler, representing the Etna Connellsville Company, and Harry Whyl of the Whyl Coke Company, on December 1, 1912, entered into a contract by which the Whyl company would purchase approximately 67,500 tons of furnace coke from the Etna company during 1913 at a price of $3 per ton. Delivery was to average 5,600 tons a month.

The statement avers that the January, February and March shipments were accepted and paid for by the defendant company. In April 4,747.05 tons were shipped. The defendant received 3,600 tons, for which no payment has been made, but refuses to accept the balance. This was sold in the open market at a loss of $1,199.33, plaintiff avers. The Whyl company is asked to pay the $10,643.80 due, and make up the loss of $1,199.33.

WEST PENN INVADES OHIO AND WEST VA. WITH POWER LINES

High Tension Wires Will be in Service Within a Month.

TO CONNECT ITS THREE PLANTS

Weldon, New Steel Town, to Use Electricity From the Coke Region and Many Other Towns Will be Supplied; Big Undertaking Nearing End.

Within 30 days power from the large Connellsville plant of the West Penn will be used in West Virginia and Ohio for the operation of street cars, the lighting of business places and dwellings, heating and other uses to which electricity is employed. During the last five months, men under the supervision of Superintendent of Line Construction W. M. Rogers have been constructing high tension lines connecting the Connellsville plant with nearly a score of towns in West Virginia and Ohio, and it is expected that the construction work will be finished within four weeks.

The power to be transmitted from here will be taken to McDonald, to Weldon, the new mill town in West Virginia, and thence across the Ohio river to connect with Brilliant. Not only will the Connellsville plant be tapped to furnish electricity to this large territory, but the Washington and Brilliant plants will also be used.

With the completion of the line, the three plants of the West Penn system will be connected for the first time. At present each plant furnishes power for its own territory, but with the new system in operation, if an accident similar to the one that occurred here recently was repeated, the other powerhouses will be called on in the emergency.

This is the first venture of the West Penn in constructing lines across the state border. The plants owned by the company in West Virginia and Ohio have been and are operating under different names. The West Penn name has not yet been adopted.

Besides the connection with the Brilliant and Washington plants, Connellsville will be in direct touch with the Wheeling division. The large power house in the West Virginia city furnishes power to a wide expanse of territory. Power transmitted from here will be taken on high tension wires, some of the largest erected by the company in recent years. These wires will cross the Pennsylvania state line at Paris.

West Penn linemen are also at work in the vicinity of Jacobs Creek and Smithton, establishing a connection in that direction between McKeesport and the coke region. Intermediate towns will be supplied with electricity.

DR. DIXON COMPLAINS

Tells Health Board to Investigate Newmyer Avenue Sewer.

State Commissioner of Health Samuel C. Dixon has notified Secretary A. E. Head of the Board of Health that the attention of the department has been called to an alleged nuisance on Newmyer avenue, at the intersection of Pittsburgh street, due principally to the clogged condition of the sewer in that vicinity.

According to the commissioner's information, the sewer is inadequate to properly carry the water away during a rain storm, resulting in not only surface waters collecting in a depression there, but drainage from a large residence section as well, thereby giving rise to conditions which are considered a menace to public health. The board will take the matter up with town council.

A GIANT BREEDER.

The summary of the Clark bill for the government of cities of the third class elsewhere printed justifies all we have said concerning the wisdom of this enactment: it is worse than we thought it was, certainly worse than it was in its original shape.

The Council of Five is given absolute charge of the government of the city with no interference or appeal save that contained in the rather ornamental initiative and referendum appendages which it is carefully provided do not apply to the levying of taxes or the expenditure of money.

The council makes all appointments and fixes all salaries. Its pay roll will be enormous. Not only will it have the immediate appointment of the police and fire departments, but it will appoint and control the treasurer, solicitor, engineer, assessor and clerk. It places it within the power of these five men, if they so elect, to build up a political machine that will enable them to perpetuate their power indefinitely.

The salaries fixed under the bill are ridiculous. They are too low for councilmen who will give conscientious consideration to their duties and too high for those who will not. The plan of government will require a large portion of the time of councilmen and a sincere and honest councilman will be compelled to neglect his private business. If he is a man in moderate circumstances dependent upon his employment, he cannot neglect his work, and the salary will not justify him in giving his whole attention to municipal affairs. The councilman will have to be recruited from the ranks of the idle rich or the professional officeholders. Neither class is desirable.

After the first two years, the salary question seems to be a matter wholly within the will of the councilmen themselves. Here all other matters. They may if they like fix their salaries as high as $3,000 per year and the mayor may receive as much as $5,000 per year. This is not likely to happen, but owing to the circumstances set forth in the preceding paragraph it is quite possible that the salaries may be increased to $1,300 and upwards, to enable the members to give the government their undivided attention. Commerce government is not cheap by any means. The council is small, but it's dear.

It is provided in this act that the mayor and councilmen shall be nominated and elected on a non-partisan ballot, that is, that the electors are to vote on the names of the candidates, and not on the basis of party affiliation. This is a good thing, and the election to every candidate who can secure the signature of 25 voters. A political ring having control of city administration and seeking to continue it could not ask a more convenient form of election. The short ballot is the most to be remembered, is just as easily voted by one man as another, and when the voter is bought the simplest his ticket the easier it is checked through to delivery.

This Clark bill will give us local government just so long as we elect ideal men to govern under it, but we repeat that it encourages the establishment of political machines and the inauguration of political grafting on a scale never dreamed of.

Eternal vigilance is the only price of safety under commission government. The citizens must see to it that none but honest and efficient men are chosen to administer the city affairs.

RATHER PERSONAL.

The Conneltsville News is trying very hard to divert public attention from some of its political plans by criticizing the business management of The Courier.

In desperation, it denies that the custom as to holidays is alike in both offices, and gives out the impression that it has five holidays where we have two. The matter of holidays was established by mutual agreement between the managers of the two papers before the advent of Editor Thompson, and he has adhered to it with characteristic honesty by issuing a paper in the morning of Memorial Day and Thanksgiving. There is nothing in the paper. It is no account to other its subscribers or its advertisers, but it serves as an excuse for its publication. The paper works a large portion of the night and gets a vacation the next day. Most of them probably feel like staying in bed.

But Editor Thompson is not obliged to publish his paper on the holidays. The Courier is. It is the only paper that is doing his employer's wrong he should cause the practice. We do not care a whoop what he does. The Courier, however, is a newspaper, not an almanac. It does not suspend publication every time a baseball club comes to town, or some of the friends want to have a picnic or a poker game.

The News is right when it says we owe it no apology; it is right when it says it has no business meddling in the business affairs of The Courier; but it is wrong in almost everything else it said yesterday about vacations and pay. It is sufficient to say in reply to this grandstand play that The News can afford to give its "front office employees" two weeks' summer vacation with pay, for the reason that it pays them little enough the year around. The Courier employees get reasonable and satisfactory vacations, but what is more to the point they receive better salaries than those paid in The News office.

But all this has nothing to do with the plan of Campaign to Capture the City of Conneltsville.

Just now, Hatcherback has troubles enough of his own. Tell 'em to some other politician.

Democratic statesmanship at Washington largely to wind. From one end of Pennsylvania avenue to the other, the air is filled with the sound of noisy demonstration. Statesmanship like this never gets very far. Honorable Abraham Lincoln is said to have said very much, but his forceful character and his business training are bringing him respect and recognition. His district will have no reason to be disappointed with their choice of a representative.

The Daily Screamer continues to put its foot into things.

The Somerset Herald, referring to the judicial investigation in Fayette county, says the "Uniontown newspapers insist that the probe shall be inserted to the bottom." Is this a Bull Moose plot to steal Dunmy's limelight?

The appointment of a woman as rural free delivery carrier out of Conneltsville will be awaited with interest. If she can weather the winter her qualification will doubtless be complete.

South Conneltsville's borough government has lost its novelty.

The judicial probers will have plenty of time to complete their investigations if the Pennsylvania Senate carries out the threat of the Honorable Jim McInnis to remain in session until fall.

Somerset county is planting beans, probably to mix with its corn.

The Philippines were pacified until the Democrats took charge of them and now the Moros have broken out again. It does seem that there can be no peace under Democratic rule.

The Conneltsville bands will try the concert program again and it is to be hoped that the weather will be kinder than it was a few weeks ago.

The Pennsylvania railroad management is said to be willing to trade $63,000,000 of Baltimore & Ohio and Norfolk & Western stock for Southern Pacific, and thus help the Harriman scramble out.

Judge Gary admits that he was not always so careful as he is now, but it must be remembered that the law was not formerly so particular.

Pennsylvania spends $22,000,000 annually and has no debt; but it has corporations to burn which is no easy task.

POSTOFFICE EXAMINATION. An examination to fill a rural carrier vacancy at Murraville will be held in Scottdale on Saturday.

MOUNT PLEASANT, June 13.—Peter Wondenski, 15 years old, was caught by a shifter in the Standard coke yards yesterday and his body was so badly crushed that after he had been taken to the Memorial Hospital for a short time he died. The body was taken to the Zimmerman morgue, where it was prepared for burial. It was then taken to his home in the east end of town, where a wife and seven children survive. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Polish church, interment to be made in the Polish cemetery.

Owing to accidents on the yards, the I. C. Frick Coke Company is using every precaution to guard against them, and for this reason they adopted the flag system. While a flag is up there are men on the yard and no shifter is allowed to come in. When the men leave the yard the flag comes down and it is thought that Wondenski, a track cleaner, did not know the flag was down and the engine came down on him. He leaned up against the wall and the engine crushed him.

Joel Evans, 71 years old, is dead at his Iron Bridge home. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Chabros. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Freewill Methodist Church at Bridgeport, the funeral to leave the Iron Bridge home at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldstone have invitations out for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marguerite Goldstone to Louis Alper of Uniontown, June 24.

The dance and reception given by the I. C. Frick Coke Company last evening was a very enjoyable affair. Fifty couples were present. While the dancing was a feature, others enjoyed themselves equally well with food and bridge whist. A buffet lunch was served. The committee in charge was W. W. Lowther, H. G. Brown, C. A. Sherrick, L. L. Gibbs, Jr., E. Zundel, G. L. Gemmill and Elmer Husband.

The J. C. W. Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church held their regular monthly meeting last evening. Following a business session, very delicious refreshments were served. The sewing school to have been opened by the Civic Club in the Church street school building yesterday afternoon was postponed until next Thursday. Mrs. Harry Rumbaugh will have charge and each child attending is expected to take a tape measure, thimble and scissors. Harry Lakin has gone to Ada, O., to attend summer school.

The Most Important Sale of Room-Size Rugs

As Regards Quantity, Quality and Price, Announced, So Far, This Season.

Several causes that are rarely linked together bring it about:—

1. Our greatly increased business which diminished regular stocks to a point where remainders of rug lots, carpet rolls and curtain assortments show small totals: 2. The changing of looms at the mill which creates discontinued patterns—new and perfect, but not to be duplicated next season. 2. Permission of the makers to deviate from the established price on certain Hartford Saxony and Art Loom Rug?; 4. A further reduction on rugs and carpets purchased by the syndicate in a recent mill sale—the greatest in history; 5. And the ability of this department to take every opportunity to sell high-grade floor-coverings and curtains cheaper than others.

PRODUCTION RECORD BROKEN IN TIN AND TERNE PLATES

During 1912 There Were 34 Active Black Plate Plants in Operation; Three Idle.

The Bureau of Statistics of the American Iron and Steel Institute has received from the manufacturers, statistics of the production of iron and steel plates and sheets, black plates, or sheets, for tinning, and tinplates and terne plates in the United States in 1912. The figures appear in the Iron Trade Review. For 1911 and previous years the statistics were compiled by the American Iron and Steel Association.

The production of iron and steel plates and sheets in 1912, excluding nail plate and skip, amounted to 5,376,980 tons, against 4,185,045 tons in 1911, an increase of 1,387,935 tons, or over 30.9 per cent. The maximum production was reached in 1912. The year of next largest production was 1910. The production of nail plate and skip will be given later.

The production of black plates, or sheets, for tinning in 1912, amounted to 282,197 gross tons against 795,698 tons in 1911, an increase of 186,699 tons, or over 23.4 per cent.

1908, and 31 in 1907. In 1912 there were 2 idle works, as compared with 4 in 1911, 4 in 1910, 9 in 1909, 12 in 1908, and 16 in 1907. Two black plate plants were being built in Ohio at the close of 1912.

From reports received from the large producers and from estimates made for a few other makers the bureau finds that the production of tinplates and terne plates in 1912, amounted to about 2,157,055,000 pounds, or 982,971 gross tons, as compared with about 1,756,070,000 pounds or 783,960 tons, in 1911, an increase of 400,985,000 pounds, or 179,011 tons. Of the total in 1912, 1,965,535,000 pounds, or 897,526 tons, were tinplates, as compared with 1,597,629,000 pounds, or 713,227 tons, in 1911, an increase of 368,006,000 pounds, or 164,299 tons, and 131,305,000 pounds, or 59,445 tons, were terne plates, as compared with 158,441,000 pounds, or 70,793 tons, in 1911, an increase of 32,655,000 pounds or 14,712 tons. The combined production of tinplates and terne plates in 1912 was much larger than in any other year.
